

News Archives

Mike Laskey was the featured guest on realfaithtv's episode Justice for All.

Martin Luther King Jr, Day of Service 2012 covered by the Trenton Monitor.

“Community Service: Joy or Burden?” Youth Reporters interview Widian Nicola and discuss how sharing in another's suffering can bring us to a deeper and more profound sense of joy.

Sean Sanford (CFJ President) awarded the Ignatius Award from Saint Joseph's University for living a life of “service for others” consistent with the principles of Saint Ignatius Loyola.

The Monitor profiles the Center for FaithJustice as Agents of Transformation.

Widian Nicola interviewed on Catholic TV's “This Is The Day.”

Widian Nicola and Mike Laskey facilitate a workshop at the Diocese of Trenton's annual Youth Celebration.

140 people joined in the Center for FaithJustice's annual Martin Luther King Day of Service.

JusticeworX a long-time part of Enable's Day Program.

Dime-a-Day project, created by high school participants after participating in JusticeworX, provides food relief in Guatemala.

The Catholic Spirit announces that Center for FaithJustice is a “worthy cause” and reports that CFJ recognized benefactors at our second annual gala.

Melissa Chedid, former LeaderworX participant and current CFJ staff member, selected as the 2010 recipient of the Rich Cunningham New Leader in Justice Award.

JusticeworX's partnership with Enable, an organization devoted to improving the lives of disabled persons, is recognized in Mercerspace.

Immaculata High School & former Board member Helen Sanford win national Charity and Social Service Honor, awarded by Basilica of the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception.

Executive Director Sean Sanford profiled in Reflecting on Service and Justice, Saint Joseph's Style, in the Saint Joseph's University alumni magazine.